

YESTERDAY'S ELECTIONS.—The contest of yesterday is over, but the smoke of the battle has not sufficiently cleared away to determine with accuracy the precise results. In this State, the Democratic ticket appears to have been elected by a majority of at least ten thousand, and in almost every county there are reports of radical losses as compared with the vote for Grant. General Sigel ran ahead of his ticket, in this and other large cities, and his total vote will probably exceed that cast for Mr. Greeley or any other candidate on the radical ticket. At this writing (3 A. M.) the Democrats appear to have secured a majority in each branch of the State Legislature, though fuller returns may accord a majority in the Senate to the radicals. The Democrats, however, have gained two Senators—one in the eleventh and one in the twenty-eighth district. The returns of the vote on the new State constitution are too meagre to judge of its fate. Most probably, it has been rejected; and, possibly, the judiciary clause may have been adopted.

In Massachusetts, the Democrats have done nobly, reducing handsomely, but not overcoming, the radical majority, from nearly seventy thousand last year to ten or fifteen thousand this year. Maryland, of course, and New Jersey, probably, have been carried by the Democrats.

The Western States, which held elections yesterday, as usual, were carried by the radicals. — New York World, Nov. 3.

THE DEATH OF SIR RICHARD GROSVENOR, THE RICHEST MAN IN ENGLAND.—Richard Grosvenor, Marquis of Westminster, died, in London, on Sunday. Early in the last century, one Sir Richard Grosvenor married Miss Molly Davies, the daughter of a gentleman of much landed property in the county of Middlesex, and, in a few years, in consequence of the tide of fashion setting Westward, found that this same small landed estate was probably, for its size, destined to be almost the most valuable in England. It now forms Grosvenor Square and the adjacent streets. Eighty years ago, about the time when George III was making improvements at Buckingham House, now a palace, which had been purchased as Queen Charlotte's dowry house, the swampy ground between Hyde Park corner and the Thames was offered for £15,000. He declined it, and it was subsequently purchased by the Grosvenors. Many years after it came into their possession, a very enterprising builder, Mr. Cubitt, persuaded the great banking house of Smith, Payne & Smythe to advance money to him for drainage and building purposes, and thus arose "Belgravia," which, when the leases fall in, will probably yield the present Marquis of Westminster £400,000 a year.

English travelers bound for Russia are warned by the home journals not by any inadvertence to wrap their hair brushes in a copy of the Times or of Punch. A decree lately issued, orders custom house officers throughout the empire, to arrest any tourist, in whose effects they discover written or printed paper, and send him to the nearest town for trial. If he is convicted of attempting to introduce forbidden printed matter, he is liable to fifteen years' imprisonment; if he has carried in his portmanteau an attack on the Emperor, the ukase declares that he shall be executed. The usage has hitherto been less severe, all suspected papers being at once destroyed, while the traveler was allowed to proceed on his journey.

Mrs. Stowe's disgusting slander of the dead, is at last effectually refuted by the production of friendly letters from Lady Byron to Mrs. Leigh. The New York Tribune, which can hardly be accused of any harshness of feeling or prejudice against the author of Uncle Tom's Cabin, gives its conclusions in the following emphatic sentence: "We can imagine only one kind of evidence capable of upsetting the conclusions of these letters—and that is a confession by Mrs. Leigh, which, it is fair to presume, Mrs. Stowe cannot produce, or we should have heard of it long ago."

General Don Piatt is not jubilant over the Republican success in Ohio. He writes to his paper, the Cincinnati Commercial, that there never was a fight in Ohio so fiercely contested by the Republicans as the last. "The land rung with speakers and was flooded with documents. The Republican losses indicate coming defeat unless we take a new departure. As the fifteenth amendment takes the negro out of politics, the future issues will be of a financial sort, and then where are we? Put your house in order, my Republican friend, for to-morrow you die."

There is no revolutionary soldier now on the pension list. The whole number of widows of the revolutionary war surviving is 887. Of widows and children of soldiers who served in the war subsequent to the revolution and prior to 1861, there are now 1,298 on the rolls, a decrease of only five since the last annual report. Those who married prior to 1860, and to whom a stipend of $100 additional was granted by the Act of February 18, 1867, are ninety-three, of whom eight reside in Virginia.

YOU MAY BE TOO LATE.—Be warned in time. Diseases like Indigestion and Dyspepsia are not to be trifled with. There is such a thing as being too late in these matters. Inflammation, or Scirrhus Cancer, or some other dangerous disease may ensue, when all restoratives, no matter how potent, would be ineffectual. Do not delay then. When the symptoms of Dyspepsia are first experienced, resort at once to the great restorative medicine, HOSLETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, and you will be safe.

But few disorders involve greater suffering, and, if not in itself immediately dangerous, it is the source of many deadly maladies. Even if it does not lead to greater evil, the mental and physical misery it produces is alone a sufficient reason why no pains should be spared to prevent or cure it. In no country on the face of the globe is it so completely domesticated as in our own, where it is found in nearly every household. HOSLETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS are universally conceded to be the sovereign remedy for this annoying disease, as they act directly upon the digestive organs, correct and tone the stomach, and give renewed vitality to the system. Acting delightfully upon the nerves and soothing the brain, renders them efficacious as a mental medicine, as well as a general stomachic. If taken as a preventive, they will be found particularly well suited to the diseases arising from the unhealthy season of autumn, and their use will prevent the creeping, unpleasant sensation often complained of when the chills are stealing slowly upon the patient. Ayer's Cathartic Pills, for all the Purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

PERHAPS no one medicine is so universally required by every body as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative. The obvious reason, that obviates all objections, is its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

It is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal vessels to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these PILLS rapidly cure.

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Langor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint, and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Stomachic, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Dropsy, Gravel, Gout, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Lungs, they should be continuously taken, until, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings, they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken, as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Diarrhoea Pill, take one or two PILLS to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

Occasional doses stimulate the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restore the appetite, and invigorate the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these PILLS makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

The consolidation of the two most popular Southern Companies is full of advantages to the policy-holders of both Companies. Its expenditures will be less, and with less relative risk. The future dividends will be more certain, and probably greater in amount, and a better reserve fund created.

NO RIGHT of old policy-holders will be affected; they will continue to pay the same rate as before, and have equal present security with their future benefit than before. All renewals of old policies will be in name of new Company, under special authority from the respective Directors of the old Companies.

A NEW CHARTER was obtained with the rights of policy-holders guaranteed, and we call special attention to the following desirable features in said charter:

"Sec. 1. The business of the Company shall be to make insurance on the lives of individuals in all the branches of Life Insurance; to grant, purchase or dispose of annuities or re-insure risks."

"Sec. 4. The business of the Company SHALL be conducted on the plan of DISTRIBUTING TO THE POLICY-HOLDERS THE PROFITS of the business, as hereinafter provided, unless by the consent of the assured the policy selected is non-participating."

"Sec. 16. This Company may issue policies on the lives of husbands and parents, or others, for the benefit of wives and families, or other beneficiaries interested in their lives—as annuities, decrees, creditors or dependents, and the same shall not be liable for the debts or contracts of the assured, except as provided in the policies issued."

"Sec. 16. The Company may issue policies payable IN GOLD: Provided, premiums are paid in the same."

"Sec. 16. The permanent investment of funds shall be in mortgages or liens on UNENCUMBERED REAL ESTATE WORTH DOUBLE THE AMOUNT LOANED."

We would also call attention to the rights secured in policy as part of the contract. Rights of party to re-instatement—paid up policy, and surrender value where "intervention of armies" or any other cause cuts the insured off from home office. This feature, omitted in policies of Northern Companies, cost the Southern people very heavily in the late war, and should make them seek the only Company that provides against such contingency in future. Some Companies now have in their policies, that parties who "take up arms" shall certain named States, "or the United States," render their policy null and void. This is making certain what was before uncertain, and is too great a mingling politics, war and life insurance, rights of parties and guarding those rights against sacrifice.

It gives dividends at the end of first year, when all cash is paid, and of second year, when part loan is taken. The all cash plan is unreasonably recommended as in every way most satisfactory.

We now confidently appeal to every one interested in Southern prosperity to look to their own interests, by sustaining their own institutions, and thereby establishing that self-confidence without which there can be no permanent prosperity. Bear in mind that already over $10,000,000 have been sent North for Life Insurance, taking so much from our strength, and thereby giving additional power to our competitors.

We offer a solid, reliable Life Insurance Company, thoroughly Southern, in the hands of men of the highest integrity, with abundant assets, free of risks, the most secure of all investments, pledged to retain within the State of South Carolina all funds accruing thereon, and, indeed, presenting every advantage that can be desired; and we only ask a full examination into the superior merits of the "PIEDMONT AND ARLINGTON LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY" to insure your patronage.
